What to do:

1. Wash the zucchinis and trim off the ends. Hold them at an angle and grate them. Then put them in a colander and sprinkle with a little salt. Leave them to weep for 5 minutes.
2. Squeeze the zucchinis in your hand to extract the juices. Heat the olive oil in a heavy frying pan, stir in the zucchini, onion and garlic and fry until they begin to colour. Remove from the heat and leave to cool.
3. Tip the flour into a bowl and gradually beat in the eggs to form a smooth batter. Beat in the cooled zucchini mixture. Add the feta, herbs chilli and season with a little pepper. Add salt if you like, but usually the feta is quite salty. Mix well.
4. Heat enough sunflower oil for shallow frying in a heavy, non-stick pan. Drop four spoonful's of the mixture into the hot oil, leaving space between each one. Then fry over a medium heat for 6 – 8 minutes, or until firm to the touch and golden brown on both sides. Remove from the pan with a slotted spoon and drain on kitchen paper while you fry the remainder.
